

TimeDesign can only be described as the simplest and easiest way to create timetables for schools and training institutions.

The main features are:

- A once off purchase – no more yearly license fees maintenance releases are also free, but a small fee may be charged for version upgrades.
- An unlimited number of periods per day.
- An unlimited number of days within a cycle.
- An unlimited number of educators, classes, rooms and subjects within a group.
- Multiple educators can teach the same subject.
- Part-time educators - you can specify what periods are available for teaching.
- The program learns from your data and adapts its solving method accordingly.
- The ability to load the tables into Excel for personalisation and printing.
- The ability to import and export data from an external source (Text and XML). (New)
-
- The ability to print directly from the program (HTML, XML). (New)
- Print a Single Timetable from the program. (New)
- The ability to save the files as HTML, so that it can be published directly to a server. (New)
-)
- Right click and delete options in the layout page. (New)
- Multiple selections in the layout page using Ctrl or Shift keys. (New)
- Multilingual. (New)
- Copy a timetable directly to the clipboard and past into Excel. (New)
- Email support from within the program. (New)
- Online program and language pack updates. (New)

TimeDesign is the recommended timetabling program for the Free State Department of Education

Contact Jéan-Pierre Schutte on +27 76 926-1121

or

Patrick Schutte on +27 72 972-2661

or

email us on sales@timetablesoftware.co.za

The cost of TimeDesign is only R1995.00 (ZAR - South African Rands)